

US

South + West - ↑ pop. growth

83% pop urban areas

70,000 avg income
3.5% un employed

density 86.16 ppl / mile<sup>2</sup> growth rate: 0.5%

birthrate / TFR: 1.66 births per women

death rate: 923.0

life expectancy: 79.25

health care + living standard: developed, but lower than expected.

possible explanation: first world country with high immigration total pop.: 340 million.

Dependency: 54%.

Child: 28%.

Aged: 25%.

High

Consumption
+ Carbon Footprint

pop. doubled

Since 1950

75.8

81.1

male female

75-85+
60-74
45-59
30-44
15-29
0-14

comparing

- similar, but females had higher life expectancy, mainly towards the end [85+].
- yes because of potential birth mortality and then older age decreases as well.

5.4 death per 1000 births
3 migrants / 1000 ppl